

7 ways to start talking DEATH with your elder loved ones

“What kind of legacy do you want to leave
in the world?”

“Have you ever been to a funeral? I haven’t. What is it like?”

“How do you want to be remembered?”

“Have you ever written a will? What would you/
did you put in it?”

“If you had a choice, how would you want to die? What would you prefer that friends/family do with your remains?”

“Is there anything you’re worried about happening if you passed away suddenly?”

Watch Suiting Dennis together, a short 20-minute film about a family that decided to plan
a green burial